

PARENTS SEE

PARENTS SUPPORTING EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE

What is Parents SEE?

Parents SEE is a 12 week leadership course for parents, grandparents and anyone interested in how schools function and who wants to improve schools. Parents SEE provides motivated participants with practical strategies for actively engaging with parents, educators and community leaders in examining educational policies and practice. Participants learn what to expect from schools, how to partner with them, and how to be successful civic leaders on education issues.

Describe how you have been involved with your child's education, with schools in your community, or with other groups (e.g. child care, health, recreation).

What do you think is the most important educational issue facing our community?

Why do you want to participate in Parents SEE?

Who should attend? Participant selection.

Parents, grandparents, School Governance Council members and those directly raising children are encouraged to apply. Class participants will attend a short interview by the Community Design Team to determine how they can effectively add to the group chosen.

Program Details

The Program starts with a retreat on Saturday, March 3, 2012 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. followed by 12 evening sessions on Tuesday nights. Light dinner and child care (if needed) is included. The classes are held in a Danbury School. The site coordinator works with 2 trained facilitators to deliver the hands-on interactive program. Each night's topic focuses on a question. Together, they uncover skills in Leadership, Partnering, Change and Educational Policies and Practices. Parents SEE was developed by the CT Commission on Children and the CT Center for School Change and funded through the State of CT Children's Trust Fund and numerous other supporters who have donated food and materials. Thank you to the Danbury Board of Education for their input into the success of the Program and to the Community Design Team.
